From the Anaheim Office

Dear Anaheim SDA Family,

Happy 4th of July! I hope you and your loved ones had the chance to spend meaningful time together today as we celebrate the 249th anniversary of one of the most remarkable social experiments in human history—the founding of the United States of America in 1776.

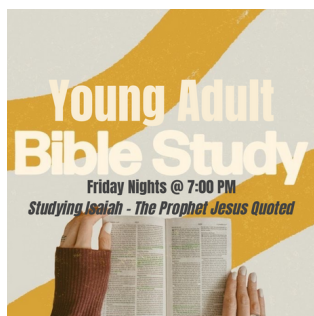

We have a full and joyful Sabbath ahead! We'll begin a new Sabbath School quarter on the book of Exodus, witness the baptisms of three precious souls, and enjoy a church-wide potluck.

During the worship service, I will be preaching on the experiences of the Judeans in Babylon during the exile and how their story can teach us how to live faithfully as temporary residents in this country while we wait for our true, heavenly home.

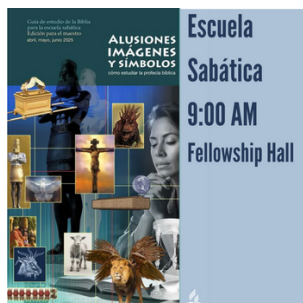

You are warmly invited to join us!

In Christ,
Pr. Assis
