From the Anaheim Office

Dear Anaheim SDA Church,

I hope you have had a wonderful week and are looking forward to spending some quiet time with God, your family, and your church community this coming Sabbath.

Tomorrow, we conclude our sermon series on 1–2 Samuel, a journey through the lives of Samuel, Saul, and David. Our final message will focus on 2 Samuel 22, David's last psalm. As usual, we begin the day with Sabbath School—Spanish at 9:00 a.m. in the fellowship hall and English at 9:45 a.m. in rooms 305/306. Tomorrow's discussion will center on Joshua 2 and 9, exploring the stories of Rahab and the Gibeonites.

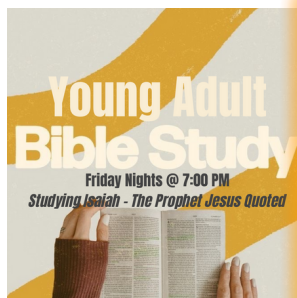

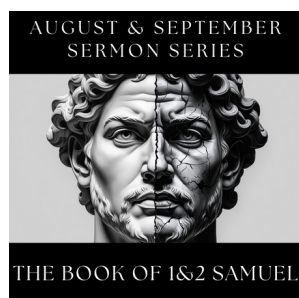

Tomorrow evening we will also celebrate our Festival of Nations, honoring the beautiful diversity of our congregation with uplifting music and delicious food. This event, organized by our Music Department, also serves as a fundraiser to help improve our church's sound equipment. You are warmly invited to join us!

See you tomorrow.

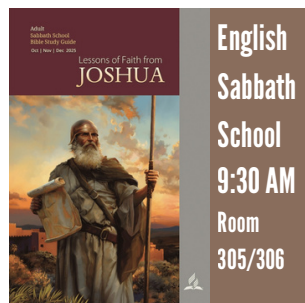

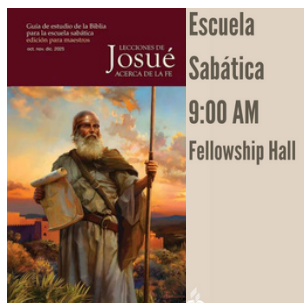

In Christ,

Pr. Assis
